What are your goals and concerns for your appointment? (check all that apply)

- I have existing estate planning documents (Will, Power of Attorney, and/or Trust). I would like to have them reviewed by an attorney for possible updates, revisions, or changes.
- I have no estate planning documents in place.
- I am interested in learning how to protect my assets from future long-term care expenses.
- I have special circumstances that I would like to discuss with an attorney:
 - I have a special needs/disabled child or loved one that I want to include in my estate plan.
 - I am concerned about my child or loved one managing their inheritance (due to financial/credit problems, addiction, spousal concerns).
 - I (or my spouse) have a recent medical diagnosis or dementia diagnosis.
 - I receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and/or Medical Assistance.

FINANCIAL WORKSHEET

Please complete this worksheet to the best of your ability and return it to our office at least 1 week prior to your initial consultation. If you have scheduled this meeting for another person, such as your parents, please complete the worksheet using their information (not yours). If you are not married, you can disregard the information requested for the spouse. All information is strictly confidential.

This information is necessary for effective planning and to have a productive appointment with the attorney. If you need assistance completing this worksheet, you may call our office for assistance. DON'T WORRY ABOUT TOTAL ACCURACY – JUST DO YOUR BEST. In addition to this worksheet, please provide our office with the following information prior to your initial consultation:

1. Any existing Wills, Powers of Attorney, Living Wills, Trusts, or other estate planning documents.
2. Deeds to all real estate you own, including vacant lots, out-of-state property, and property jointly owned with other people.

The above documents can be sent to us via secure document upload on our website (www.apelderlaw.com), email to kprice@apelderlaw.com, or hand delivery to our office at 218 College Park Plaza, Johnstown.
